

Amanda Carol Takach and Wyatt Martin Booth were united in marriage on the evening of Saturday, May 12, 2007 at Duck Woods Country Club in Southern Shores, N.C. The Reverend L. Spottswood Graves officiated at the double ring ceremony. An instrumental trio led by Roy Murray presented a program of beautiful wedding music. Mrs. Sandra Ferreira-Iannone, sister-in-law of the bride, sang The Lord's Prayer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wayne Takach of North Haven, CT. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin Booth of Southern Shores, NC. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore an ivory lace cathedral length gown and matching veil which were imported from Spain. Her bouquet consisted of four dozen Vendela white roses.

Miss Julie Beatty of Elkton, VA served as the Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Stacey Ann Walters of Kill Devil Hills, NC and Mrs. Karen Griffin Bernier of Conshohocken, PA. The honor attendants wore long formal gowns of blush pink accented with a lime green sash. Their bouquets were a mixture of roses, peonies, hydrangeas and tulips. Miss Sophie Ferreira-Iannone, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

Mr. Tyler Holt Booth, the groom's brother, served as Best Man. Groomsmen were Mr. Rudy Bombien of Cary, NC and Mr. Brace Robert Mullet of Charleston, WV. Mr. Edward Bernier was the Master of Ceremonies and Mr. William Ryan Snow of Virginia Beach, VA was the reader.

A time of celebration preceded the ceremony which was followed by a dinner and dance reception in the clubhouse. Bell ringers for the ceremony were Miss Camryn Holt and Master Matthew Holt, niece and nephew of the groom. Guests danced to the music of The Crowd, a local band. The couple was honored with a special rendition of "Amanda", written and sung by good friend, George McLean. The parents of the groom hosted a rehearsal party at their home in Southern Shores on Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Johnson and Wales University in Providence, RI and is a legal assistant with Vandeventer Black LLP in Southern Shores. The groom is a graduate of N.C. State University in Raleigh and Washington and Lee University School of Law in Lexington, VA. He is an associate with Vandeventer Black LLP.

Following a honeymoon in Puerto Rico and Anguilla the couple is now at home in Kill Devil Hills.
